AINSE Events Calendar for 2022:

26th AINSE Winter School

4–8 July 2022

For senior undergraduate STEM students.

Go hands-on with Australian landmark research infrastructure, guided by leading ANSTO researchers, at an intensive week-long Winter School hosted at ANSTO's Sydney campus. Meet future research collaborators and explore potential research projects. Online participation will be available in 2022.

Nominations received: 1 March 2022 – 31 May 2022.

AINSE Postgraduate Orientation Week

Nuclear Science Week, October 2022

For AINSE postgraduate scholarship recipients.

Network with fellow early-career researchers from across Australia and New Zealand, meet your project co-supervisors and take general and site-specific tours of the facilities at ANSTO's Sydney campus.

Online participation will be available in 2022.

Open to all AINSE PGRA/RSS & ANSTO FutureNow recipients.

6th AINSE Women in STEM and Entrepreneurship (WISE) School

29 November–1 December 2022

For first-year female-identifying undergraduate STEM students.

Travel to ANSTO's Sydney campus to meet established researchers and entrepreneurs, network with fellow first-year students from across Australia and New Zealand, and engage in a year-long mentorship program with AINSE and ANSTO staff and research leaders.

Online participation will be available in 2022

Nominations received: 1 August 2022 – 15 October 2022.
